I know it's morning and that you need to go
You look so lovely in the morning glow
The only thing I ask is that you know
That I will keep you in my thoughts throughout the day

Another disappearing act it seems
Another conversation gone midstream
It's never easy, when you're gone from me
But could you keep me in your thoughts throughout the day?

Keep me in your thoughts while I'm away
Remember how it was and the words we thought to say
Darlin' I could never be distraught
If only you would keep me in your thoughts

When you were little did you think of leaving?
How the one you chose to be with, would barely let you see him
And as I drift with the winds of every season
Girl you're right there in my thoughts though you can't see them

When I was little I had Sky the dinosaur
And I don't think much of that toy anymore
But I think of you before you're out the door
So could you keep me in your thoughts while you're away?

Keep me in your thoughts you precious thing
Sometimes you get the honey, sometimes you get the sting
And a solitude like this cannot be bought
If only cause you keep me in your thoughts
