I'm looking for a princess, but you're too much the queen You're royal family's got me tired if you know what I mean
Don't misunderstand me cause girl you knock me out It's that you're always boxing that generates my doubts Uninspired Gambling
Is all that a fella needs Gambling with her highness Is like walking on your knees

Darlin' if you dig it, would you come dig it with me?
The card that's on the table reads, "get out of jail for free."
I feel like you put on your poker face for every guy you've met
If you'd tell me what the game is, I could place my bet

2,3,4.
I can't dance all night and I've got a feeling that's alright
When she said lover please stay, I had to turn and run the other way

You're a vixon virtuoso, a saffire diamond ring
But I am no Pinnocchio and you can't pull my strings So in the service of the court, I'm a gonna' dance with you for free
You can keep your aces, give the jack of hearts back to me
