Under a moonlit sky
And the starlight in her eyes
I have found her place
And I cherish every breathe she takes
I pray you'll she'd the light
Of your love on my tonight
I need to show her how
I can love her like you love me now

Cause she's the purest dove
Flown by wings of love
I see her tonight
In your moonlit sky

You shape these clouds with your hands
This beauty was in your plan
And she's apart of this landscape
The crown jewel as your love began to take shape

And I love what you have made
You let the heavens open up and created her
And her beauty it shines
I see heaven in her eyes
