Put on your new face
Kiss the old one away
Today is the day you start living
Step out of your old place
Kiss it goodbye today
Today is the day you start living

I want you to turn around
I want you to come around

There's something I gotta say
You better walk my way
Cause I'll show you how to start living

So you say that all you want is your own parade
I think that I can give you your holiday
Cause I got the peace that's given away Happiness is here the day that you put on your new face
