Come On get your way to the front of the game
You might be something bigger than the latest craze
Get ready for the days that will change your life
Everybody's got their hands up in the air
Surrendering their days to the rage that's there
But come on get on board
We're going to the Revolution Times

Just Do your thing and do it good Cause the people never do what they should Don't listen to their spells cause their fashions are from hell
And they want you to fall in there with me tonight

I think it's time for the Revolution Times
I'll see ya on the other side of the Revolution Times

I saw ya close the book at the end of Chapter 3 You're headed to the next one and worried what you'll read
Don't worry 'bout a thing cause everything will be alright

Nobody's got your style
You flash it so bright
Now go the extra mile
Jump over the night
Wake Up and take a ride
