Verse:

Was lookin' down town for a chick to lead me to the catacombs

She looked me in the eye and she asked me if I trade cocaine

Said, "ya let me down twice now lead me to the painted passage

I wanna fall down today"

I followed her around

Going underground, got me buzzin'

Looked me in the eye, I'm not gonna lie

It's not a sin

Don't she look nice?, she's the centre of her attention

I wanna fall down today

When I get down there, there's peopls paintin', fuckin' and dancing

The city sleeps above, I light candles in a wall of heads

There's panic in the air, police've found us here

We douse the fires

We fall down again

(Can you help me?)

(Approx 1 min. Instrumental until finish)
