You could lick or chew tongue in style
Tonight champagne drag queen suit pinstripe
Outta line it's time to try how blisters
On your feet blisters up your spine
If I could choose from two
I'd mime to be a smile
But when you rely on a lie that's true
And no one believes in the things you do
'cause half of the lies you tell ain't
True I'm gonna find out I'm gonna find a
Piece of you
You could pick and lose diesel dreams for Crime I should win and choose colours

Undersize a naked fake that's a face that Fits
For two sex brings out the spies hanging
From your feet hollywood star style but
When you rely on a lie that's true
No one believes in the things you do
'cause half of the lies you tell
Ain't true
I'm gonna find out I'm gonna find a piece
Of you
