See me

Dancing in the mirror
Oh, you could see her from a mile, man
She was alright
She looked right over her shoulder
Right at me
And I was falling through the floor now
She came over me

Help, help me, oh, help me
She's out of her mind
Help me, oh, help me
Somebody tonight

Laughing all night
Yeah, she could tell a funny story
She could stay up all night
Yeah, she was someone to remember
She was black and white
And we did it on a sun bed
And she did it right

Ah, help me, oh, help me
She's out of her mind
Help me somebody
Oh, help me tonight

Prancing around a low lit light
Oh, running rags over her shoulders
Oh, red chilli lights
She drank you underneath the table
She hold you heavenly tight
Slap you right across your white face
She make you cry like a child

Help, help me, oh, help me
She's out of her mind
Help me, so help me
Somebody tonight

Crazy, out of her mind

You wanna shoot her, wanna love her
You can't make up your mind
You wanna tell her all your stories
Wanna open your mind
You wanna show her how your heart works
But she ain't got the time

You're fighting all the time
There's nothing working, nothing gaining
It's just a waste of time
You're trying hard to remember
All the beautiful times
Ah, but you're clouded by the bullshit
All of the time

Mami, just loving on a Saturday night
And making love under a blanket
With the telly on loud
You wanna show her that you love her
But there's sex on your mind
You makin' love from watching movies
I think I'm doin' it right

Help me, oh, help me
Help me, so help me

Oh, help me
Somebody
Oh, she's out of her mind

Help me, now, but
She's out of her mind
