"Pass The Buck"

It's beautiful, I'm a fool
Tried to save you from the rainy days
Looking back down the track
I'm the one who carried all your weight

Yes, you lie all the time
And I don't believe you
(Ba ba ba, ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba)
Dodging blame, catching planes
Ride my tail to freedom
(Ba ba ba, ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba)

You don't know what it is you got
You don't know where you're going
You don't know what is right from wrong
All that you do is lie so

Just get out of my life, you're passing the buck
Yeah get in, just hold up
Your hands and take on the shame
Just get out, you're lying again, take the blame
Just get out of my life and be a man, yeah, yeah, yeah

Look at you, what you do
My ears are burning from the tales you spin
Cracks me up that you love
Telling people all the lies you made

I'm the one that tried time
And time again to please you
(Ba ba ba, ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba)
Forgetting me and misery
What did you ever give me back?
(Ba ba ba, ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba)

You don't know what it is you got
You don't know where you're going
You don't know what is right from wrong
All that you do is lie so

Just get out of my life, you're passing the buck
Yeah get in, just hold up

Your hands and take on the shame
Just get out, you're lying again, take the blame
Just get out of my life and be a man

If you can
Hold up your hands
Understand

Just get out of my life, you're passing the buck
Yeah get in, just hold up
Your hands and take on the shame
Just get out, you're lying again, take the blame
Just get out of my life and be a man

If you can
Hold up your hands
Understand
Yeah, yeah, yeah
