Just time for another could down me another one when im leaving with the others goin home sweet home surprise someone put my key into the front door keeping quiet but im drunk and im creeping up the old stairs steppin over the one the one thats damned

And my head it started spinnin spinnin round and round could be you with a man in our bed or it could be the wine Surprise

Still time for another
could down me another wine wont bother leaving with the others no home sweet home
suprise no-one
threw my keys into the river singing louder than a drunk wont bother sleeping on the old stairs staying up till the sun down another wine

And my head it started spinning spinning round and round
or it could be the wine
Suprise

Still time for another
and im leaving with the others
suprise no-one
