Yesterday I was on fire
Everything I knew was true
Everything in my heart was right
I could touch the sky
I could see for miles
The horizon breaks
It comes between and falls away

Maybe for a moment
I forgot who I was in You
Maybe for a moment
I forgot who You were in me

Now I am wondering
Why everything is gone
Everything I had is out of reach
And I would give my life
I would give my all
The horizon breaks
It comes between and falls away

Maybe for a moment
I forgot who I was in You
Maybe for a moment
I forgot who You were in me
