I'm sick of pushing away
I'm tired of falling asleep
I know there's more to life than this
You're reaching out to me
As I pray
You're reaching out to me
As I pray

Tonight is the last night
I've been broken
I've been torn
There's nothing left to mourn
And I need You here
And I need You here tonight

The price that You paid for
My sin and all my shame is so
So much more than I can bear
You walk this road with me
Everyday

Tonight is the last night
I've been broken
I've been torn
And I need You here
And I need You here tonight

I'm letting go
I'm letting go
This is the end of me
And is the start of You
