I'm cold inside
I'm so lost and torn
I have messed up
I don't know how things got this way

I know I need You in my life
So now I call out to You
To rescue me

Give me life so I may live
Give me air so I can breathe again
Hold on tight and don't let go
Pull me up because I'm sinking here
Without You

I have held inside
All these fears and lies
That I live everyday
But I know that I can't live this way

I know I need You in my life
So now I call out to You
To rescue me

Give me life so I may live
Give me air so I can breathe again
Hold on tight and don't let go
Pull me up because I'm sinking here
Without You
