It seems to remind you, of times that were behind you
One day late that's all it takes, just to ruin fate And know this now, like a father loves the youth, that's how I love you

So give em' the worst it always comes first again, wait
for them
I see a heart that's made of gold
One more moment and its just a retake
That's how I know you'll never fold

Oh, look another Pharisee. Judging him like they judge me
This kids got heart! (ya it's made of gold) Still the story goes untold Believe you, believe me. Defining hearts amazing

So give em' the worst it always comes first again, wait
for them
I see a heart that's made of gold.
One more moment and its just a retake
That's how I know you'll never fold

I know it's beautiful, there's so much love. Love
I said are you ready for, Love?

So give em' the worst it always comes first again, wait
for them
I see a heart that's made of gold.
One more moment and its just a retake
That's how I know you'll never fold
