I'm sitting on a train
Pulling on a cord
Heading in the wrong direction
I'm thinking all the while this is adding to the miles
Between my girl and me
I'm barking up the wrong tree
Shouting at the moon
Praying for divine intervention
Seems like the man's got other plans for me

As soon as I can
I'm gonna make the right connection
As soon as I can
I'll be back to make it right
I'll be back to make it right

I'm walking on the road
Slipping on the stones
Leaving all I want behind me
I'm blinded by the sun
I'm feeling like it's one step closer two steps back
I'm standing at the crossroads
Rolling out the bones
Waiting for an angel to find me
I guess it just ain't gonna be like that

As soon as I can
I'm gonna make the right connection
As soon as I can
I'll be back to make it right
I'll be back to make it right

As soon as I can
I will
As soon as I can
I will...
