Lonely found a savior
Stimuli relater
Who'd want to settle down?
I'll call you when I'm falling
Be something black and crawling
Take your clothes off, make you moan
One on one is old and faded
We're searching on and on

Come and blow me away
Taste the fear, the innocence
We're further out than anyone
Come and blow me away
Twisted as we melt in the flames
It's future love games

Surely man's endeavor
Is to lose himself forever
Try to step up from the ground
But how I love the science
I love its cold appliance
The only love I've ever found
One on one is old and faded
We're searching on and on

Come and blow me away
Taste the fear, the innocence
We're further out than anyone
Come and blow me away
Twisted as we melt in the flames
It's future love games

I've been falling, I've been breaking
I've been faking all the things I want to say
Come on, move me, will you show me
All the things I'm needing, Mama
I tried to keep my love and save it all

I've been falling
I've been breaking
I've been faking all I want to say

Come on, move me,
Will you show me?
I try to keep my love and save it all
I've been falling
I've been breaking
I've been faking all I want to say
Come on, move me,
Come and save it all

Come and blow me away
Taste the fear, the innocence
We're further out than anyone
Come and blow me away
Twisted as we melt in the flames
