Your secret's safe, it's been locked up
Sometimes once is not enough
But you can't say no when a heart says yes
Running red lights up ahead

I know I ain't gonna miss out here
Gonna be lying with you there
Only one night but hey, don't prey, hold on

It's only sin, we're shedding skin
We're letting out and we're letting in
It's only blood, it's only love
You have to bleed to feel alive, feel alive

It's on your lips, it's on your breath
This gravity can never be unsaid
And when you should say no is when you tell me yes
Are we blinded, are we blessed?

I know I ain't gonna miss out here
Gonna be lying with you there
Only one night but hey, don't prey, hold on

It's only sin, we're shedding skin
We're letting out and we're letting in
It's only blood, it's only love
You have to bleed to feel alive, alive, alive

It's only blood
It's only sin
We let it out, let it out, do we let it in
Hey don't prey, hold on, don't prey

It's only you, it's only me
And everything in the space between
The space between
The space between

It's only sin (only sin), we're shedding skin
We're letting out and we're letting in (oh we let it in)
It's only blood, it's only love

You have to bleed to feel alive,
I feel alive, I feel alive, I feel alive
It's only love, love, love
It's only love, love, love...
