I was watching the rain running off the roof
Contemplating a few repairs
A couple of screws are loose
Don't you know
Waiting for the coffee that never seems to brew
Fed the dog and walked the cat
One thing just keeps coming back
Is there nothing I can do
To keep my mind off you?

Next time I see her
I'll remember
To forget what stopped me when
We were together
Couldn't tell her how I really feel
But next time that I see her
Next time that I see her

Pulled myself together, grabbed my coat and hat
Flew down to the station
I gotta get my life on track
I know I'll be a fool
If I don't follow through, so...

Next time I see her
I'll remember
To forget what stopped me when
We were together
Couldn't tell her how I really feel
But next time that I see her

Can't go on like this
She won't be around forever
Something's gotta give
This ain't no way to live
(There's no turning back)
It's now or never

Next time I see her
I'll remember
To forget what stopped me when
We were together

Couldn't tell her how I really feel
But next time that I see her
