Two by two they come marchin' along,
Happy and healthy and carrying on,
And every word to every song that they know, was written about love,

But I don't feel like that right now,
Call me unlucky, or jaded, or down,
I just hope I can figure it out soon,

(Chorus)
I can't wait to find someone,
Someone to hold me close and keep me warm, oh,
I can't wait to find someone,
Don't wanna sleep alone tonight.

I wish I had patience to just be content,
But the longer I wait, oh, the harder it gets,
I sometimes wish my fears would let me go,
It's all I'm thinking of...

Springtime is filled with young love in the air,
Dancing around me but never too near,
Tell me you need me and say you'll be there,
Give me a reason to care.

(Chorus)

Everyday is the same old story
Where I fear that I'll fail and I choose to ignore it,
I know I will never find love if I don't try,
If I don't try,
If I don't try...

(Chorus)
