Sometimes I get the feeling that I'm swimming in the sea,
Moving with the current past my feelings and my dreams,
I know that things will never stay the same and that's okay
If I just flow.

I'm looking for the truth but it'll never set me free,
I'm finding out that beauty isn't always as it seems,
I know that I'll be safe with all the chances that I take
If I just flow.

(Chorus)
Flow 4x

Always holding on a bit too tightly to my love
Here's the part where I admit you're who I'm thinking of,
I'm wishing that I had a better way to let you know
To let it flow.

(Chorus)

The world keeps spinning round and round,
Don't let your worries get you down,
There's always one thing left to try,
Unclench your fist, Open your mind.

(Chorus)

Let it go, let it Flow,
You know you're never gonna stop...
