Did you ever feel like you served a master you didn't love?

Like the mask you wore just took away your soul?
Did you ever do the things you swore you'd never do
And hurt the people who you love the most?

Are you who you wanna be?

Give me meaning.
Give me life.
Give me everything,
Everything you have.
Give me breath.
Give me soul.
Give me strength I need to say
I can't do this on my own.

Did you ever bleed for someone you knew would let you down?
Did you bear a cross though you had done no wrong?
Did you ever stand at the edge of all you knew was real
And dare to take just one step further out?

Are you who you wanna be?
Well, no one is.
