The candles burn
In your arms I lay
Feel so safe right now
No one else around
My heart beat rise joy as tears fall from my eyes
And I know I am not
The only one who feel so great
When they fall in love
I was searching so blindly
You helped me see
And if it wasn't for love
I would have never made it out
If it wasn't for love
I would have given up by now
And love set my heart free
And love rescue my dreams
And love really saved me
If it wasn't for love

Your love
Your love

Your love
Your love

Love, I have been searching for love
If it wasn't' for your love
I have been looking for love
Love, I have been searching for love
If it wasn't' for your love
I have been looking for love

Love love love
I was there felt the end was near
Watched my dreams break down on a lonely road
Your world gave me so much inner peace
And I know I'm not the only one who feels so afraid
When they fall in love
I was searching so blindly
And you helped me see
And if it wasn't for love
I would have never made it out

If it wasn't for love
I would have given up by now
And love set my heart free
And love rescue my dreams
And love really saved me
If it wasn't for love

Love, I have been searching for love
If it wasn't' for your love
I have been looking for love
