O what a plan what a beautiful plan but how it starts is not how it ends
Said we could chill without falling in love You said it would work but you were wrong
You were dead wrong
I tried to escape I tried to move on Now I cant explain but I want to stay
I got to know I got to know

Where do we go from here
Please don't let the road end here
Cause I could not imagine what would happen if we end
this here
What if we never said
What if we never had Would we regret not having what could happen if we end this here

Where do we go

Every kiss is like the first one And the less that I get the more I want some I believe my lie I said this wasn't love But my heart disagrees but I was wrong yes I was dead wrong
I wanted to blame you but its not your fault
Why I cant explain why I want to stay
I got to know I got to know

Where do we go from here
Please don't let the road end here
Cause I could not imagine what would happen if we end
this here
What if we never said
What if we never had
Would we regret not having what could happen if we
end this here

Where do we go

We breath in the night but there's air in the day

We breath in the week and months just fly by the days What kind of hurt is this that wont even let me want to escape

Where do we go from here
Please don't let the road end here
Cause I could not imagine what would happen if we end
this here
What if we never said
What if we never had
Would we regret not having what could happen if we
end this here
Where do we go
