Strip away the evidence of me
Untill Your glory is all there is to see
Lead me Lord onto the altar again
Hide me in the shadow of Your wing
Guide me to the place of offering
Lead me Lord onto the altar again
Lead me to the Alar of sacrifice
Where I place my heart, my will, my life
Everything before You I lay down
All of my trophies and my crowns
Lead me Lord onto the Altar again
Purify my heart, consume my will Burn in me a passion deeper still
Lead me Lord onto the altar again
All of me surrendered to Your ways
All for You and only for Your fame
Lead me Lord onto the altar again
