Title : Captivate

From the surface of my skin,
To the depths of the soul within,
I give you all of me.
All the secrets of my heart,
Every word and every heart,
I give you all of me.

All of my heart's in need of holding,
All my soul's in need of truth,
Come be near me, come surround me.

I lift my hands in sweet surrender.
I'm falling humbly on my knees.
I fix my gaze upon your splendor.
And how I love your majesty.
Oh you captivate me, oh, oh.

Come into my darkest place,
Stand inside and claim your space,
I give you all of me.
All the secrets of my heart,
Every word and every thought,
I give you all of me.

All my heart's in need of holding,
All my soul's in need of truth,
Come be near me, come surround me with your beauty.

I lift my hands in sweet surrender.
I'm falling humbly on my knees.
I fix my gaze upon your splendor.
And how I love your majesty.
Oh you captivate me oh, oh.
Oh you captivate me oh, oh.
