My heart's got the wheel
I'm just along for the ride
And I like the way it feels
Like floatin' with the tide
In a slow and steady rush
In a new kinda chill
My days are lookin' up

You got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
You got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?

You say you feel the same
Every night you lie awake
Dreamin' of a place
So high and full of grace
So come on take my hand
And follow with me
If we're lucky we won't lean

You got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
You got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?

So make your move
There's not much time
Before it's gone forever
You can't rewind
Don't tell me you're afraid to cross that line

Cause you got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
You got to me, I'll get to you
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
How, yeah how long?
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
How long, how long, how long can you hold out?
