Up in the morning, cup of coffee, cold shower Kick my motor into gear, should have been there by now
Life's getting in the way of living

I got a boss who's a jerk worse than the worst
Gonna burst if I don't get my ass into work
Life's getting in the way of living

Cause living's a lake, a six-pack a long weekend
An open road with nowhere to go and a couple good friends
Life's getting in the way of living

I can't help it, the skinny like paycheck
It gets me drunk, but never gets me wasted
Life's getting in the way of living

Some days it feels like it's all give It'd the grind you get from the same old thing
Life's getting in the way of living

Cause living's a Friday night at a football game
The feel good buzz of a suntan, from hanging out at the waves
Life's getting in the way of living

I got my eye on some dirt
One day I'm gonna own it
I got my plans but right for the moment
Life's getting in the way of living

Cause living's a lake, a six-pack a long weekend
An open road with nowhere to go and a couple good
friends

Living's a Friday night at a football game
The feel good buzz of a suntan, from hanging out at
the waves
Life's getting in the way of living

It all keeps getting in the way of living
