As I lie here out of breath
And the tears start to fall
In my empty room
My heart just melts away
'Cause I got nothing left at all
Inside this lonely tomb

There's a hole in my heart
As my life rips apart

[Chorus]
Don't say it's over
Over, cause it's not the end
Don't tell me that it's over
Over, all over, the end

Is it ever gonna change
This emptiness inside
Your shadow follows me

Time is standing still
This love has been denied
I've lost my sanity

As I scream out your name
I'm never gonna be the same

[Chorus]
Don't say it's over
Over, cause it's not the end
Don't tell me that it's over
Over, all over, the end

[Instrumental & Guitar solo]

[Chorus]
Don't say it's over
Over, cause it's not the end
Don't tell me that it's over
Over, all over, the end
