Back when I was with you, babe, I was always feelin'
fine
I'd smile for no good reason, and I lost my sense of time
Then you found another, and you left me here to drift
Now I need a little help when I need a little lift

I used to get high on your love, nowadays I just get high
I used to walk on the clouds up above, nowadays I just get by
I used to get high on your love, nowadays I just get
high
I used to fly like the wings of a dove, now I sit and wonder why

All my worries went up in smoke when I was holding you
And I felt like I was in on a secret only the two of us knew When you started stepping out on me, you stole my peace of mind
And now I can only get it back an hour or two at a time

I used to get high on your love, nowadays I just get
high
I used to walk on the clouds up above, nowadays I just
get by
I used to get high on your love, nowadays I just get
high
I used to fly like the wings of a dove, now I sit and
wonder why
