(originally by Elmore James)

Look over yonder's wall, hand me down my walking
cane

cane

I got myself a woman and yonder comes your man

Now I'm in love with you baby but you don't treat me
right

You take all my money, walk the streets late at night

Now your man went to the war, and I know it was rough
Don't know how many men he killed, but he done killed enough

Look over yonder's wall, hand me down my walking
cane

Look over yonder's wall, hand me down my walking
cane

I got myself a woman and yonder comes your man
