Yesterday
At the show
I met this girl
Her name is Chloe
Brown hair
Pretty eyes
I think I'm in love for the first time.

She wears a peace sign
Around her neck
Something 'bout her
Felt so right
Unforgettable night.

I know I barely know her
But I've got this feeling about the way she
Takes her time with her words
I don't know why
I don't know why
I feel like
I could go with her tonight
She sure makes it feel alright.

Acoustic breakdown!
(Hahaha!)
Throw down that beat.
Now back to the song.

I've been texting her since one AM
Thinking about the perfect words to send
I don't know what to do.
Those four words that she said
Haven't quite left, left my head.
I feel like she believes
In me.

Woah oh.

I know I barely know her
But I've got this feeling about the way she
Takes her time with her words

I don't know why
I don't know why
I feel like
I could go with her tonight
She sure makes it feel alright.

Days go by.
I wish she was mine.
But, I'll keep hoping every night.

Days go by.
I wish she was mine.
But, I'll keep hoping every night

I know I barely know her
But I've got this feeling about the way she
Takes her time with her words
I don't know why
I don't know why
I feel like
I could go with her tonight
She sure makes it feel alright.

I know I barely know her
But I've got this feeling about the way she
Takes her time with her words
I don't know why
I don't know why
I feel like
I could go with her tonight
She sure makes it feel alright.
