O Carmen, Iâ€™ve had too much tequila.
Between you and this Mexican moon Iâ€™m gonna fall.
El Paso lady, youâ€™re driving me crazy.
In a language I donâ€™t understand â— you said it all.
Dusty old Juarez on the old Rio Grandeâ€™
It sure is handy â— if you need a friend.
I donâ€™t belong here, your dark eyes keep warning.
Iâ€™ll leave in the morning, but for know just let me in.
O Carmen, Iâ€™ve had too much tequila.
Between you and this Mexican moon Iâ€™m gonna fall.
El Paso lady, youâ€™re driving me crazy.
In a language I donâ€™t understand â— you said it all.
Crossing over the border, stepping over the line,
Drunk on yesterdayâ€™s wine and still feeling the flame.
The guitars are playing a song that Iâ€™ve never heard.
Without saying a word, you keep calling my name.
O Carmen, Iâ€™ve had too much tequila.
Between you and this Mexican moon Iâ€™m gonna fall.
"No tengo lugar aqui, tus ojos me cautionan.
Salgo en la ma?ana, por ahora deja me entrar,"
O Carmen, Iâ€™ve had too much tequila.
Between you and this Mexican moon Iâ€™m gonna fall.
"Senorita de El Paso, me causas poner loco."
In a language I donâ€™t understand â— you said it all..
