Sailing on Nevada 95, listening to those hot tires whine.
Baby ran away with a dealer named Ray back in Vegas,
Now Iâ€™m too blue to cry â— headinâ€™ north under big desert skies.

But itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonesome.
Itâ€™s a great place to be when your heart breaks in two.
Itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonely like me,
And you need a new place to call home from.
Itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonesome.
Beatty is a far cry from Reno, but I gambled my money away.

Sold my guitar, got a job tending bar and it looks like
Iâ€™m sure here to stay â—
And it donâ€™t make a dang anyway.
â€™Cause itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonesome.
Itâ€™s a great place to be when your heart breaks in two.
Itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonely like me,
And you need a new place to call home, son.
Itâ€™s a great place to be if youâ€™re lonesome.
If youâ€™re lonesome
Itâ€™s a great place to be
If youâ€™re lonesome
