

Steve Spurgin "Look At What You've Done"

Visit "Look At What You've Done" on MotoLyrics.com

I used to think a good time was in some honky tonk,
Dancing with a bottle 'til I could hardly walk.
Lord, the things I've done in my time that wouldn't stand the light.
I'd drag my name down in shame just to make it through the night.
I was bouncing off the bottom with one foot in the grave.
I'll never understand why it was me you picked to save.
You loved me back to life when all my life had come undone.
Now here I stand a different man. Honey, look at what you've done.
Look at what you've done to me. I'm coming home at night,
'Cause I can't wait to feel your arms around me
tight.
When I'm looking for a good time now, you're my
only one.
You made a jewel out of a fool. Honey, look at what you've done.
The fire you started is one that just won't fade.
You're the love of my lifetime, so when I'm old and gray,
You'll be the sparkle in my eyes. Forget that rocking chair.
When the feeling's right, turn out the light. You'll always find me there.
Look at what you've done to me. I'm coming home at night,
'Cause I can't wait to feel your arms around me
tight.
When I'm looking for a good time now, you're my
only one.
You made a jewel out of a fool. Honey, look at what you've done.
You made a jewel out of a fool. Honey, look at what you've done..

