I don't wanna fight girl can we work it out
A lot of stress on my mind we should talk about

[Chorus: Martin Kember]

Baby where did we go wrong
When did you move on
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning
Since you been gone

[Verse 1: Steve V]

Gots me fightin on your cellphone
Hang up call u back baby what's wrong
I don't wanna fight girl can we work it out
A lot of stress on my mind we should talk about
I remember old days we were so cool
No lies no crys we were so true
Everything that we started seemed so pure
Can't stand the thought of u not right thurr
Late nights drivin up to the movie store
Blankets to the floor chillin on the low
Now u finna dip where u gonna go
I don't really know can u slow your roll
Why you wanna give up everything that we worked for girl
Why why
Why you wanna trip gave you everything you wanted now you tryin to let it slip man
Never once cheated never mistreated
Now I'm back on my own and I'm feelin defeated yep baby

[Chorus: Martin Kember]

Baby where did we go wrong
When did you move on
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning
Since you been gone
I ain't tryin to fight no more
Can we even know the scroll
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning since you
been gone

[Verse 2: Steve V]

It's been 2 days it's been no word
Memories we had been just a big blur
You were always there for the whole dang thang
Broke with your boy never gave when it rained
A wave came through washed up everything we had Got good intentions never meant to hurt you bad
God said forgive and the devil said hate
Puttin everthing right on the devils plate
A lot of good times and a lot of bumpy roads
Was gonna get married had a lot of good goals
Had a lot of moments that money could'ntbuy
Now it's all gone and I'm askin god why
Come and save me from this place called pain
I'm drivin on the highway in the wrong lane
Part of my girl tryin to make things right
Goin through the most just another lonely night

[Chorus: Martin Kember]

Baby where did we go wrong
When did you move on
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning
Since you been gone
I ain't tryin to fight no more
Can we even know the scroll
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning since you
been gone

[Verse 3: Steve V]

I called your number I got your voicemail
I said how u doin and I hope u doin well
Can u call me back cause I'm goin out my mind
U mean everything true loves hard to find
I miss you like woah hope I got another chance
Miss hangin with u late night romance
Now I'm reminisin bout the time that we had True heartbreak with this?
Since you been gone I haven't seen a better day
Sky was blue now it's tearin sheds of gray
I guess were all done and you ain't comin home
Gotta keep my head up so I don't feel alone
It all ain't right but we gotta move on
I wish I would know where the hell we went wrong
Hope we meet again in this place we call life
You get 1 chance and you never get it twice

[Chorus: Martin Kember]

Baby where did we go wrong
When did you move on
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning
Since you been gone
I ain't tryin to fight no more

Can we even know the scroll
Cause I feel like I've been struck by lightning since you
been gone

I don't wanna fight girl can we work it out
A lot of stress on my mind we should talk about [x2]
