Here you come rolling off the highway
With a smile and a wave
And you put your arms around me
Like you left here yesterday
The last time you flew I said we were through
But now that you're standing here I melt into you

Oh I've been missing you
Dreamin' of kissing you
I think that you go so I will beg you to stay
It's an addiction a hopeless affliction
I love you I hate you but hey
Kiss me anyway

I'm good at forgetting all about you
For weeks at a time
Just when I think I can live without you
You come back in my life
I should tell you no turn around and go
But all I can think of is holding you close

CHORUS:

BRIDGE:
The passion the power
So intoxicating
When you spin your web
There's no escaping
