(marcus hummon/steve wariner)
(track 8 - time 3:05)

So near so far
This close to her heart
The right word the right time
I know she would've been all mine
One day she's bound to see
How much she needs me

Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so much
You're just about to say it
There you are professing your love
But she's walking away it hurts so much

So I bide my time
Spin my wheels like a mercury dime
It's heads it's tails
Plan c cannot fail
Twelve roses sent her way
Chocolates melting on a summer day

Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so
much
You're just about to say it
There you are professing your love
But she's walking away it hurts so much

I think she's playing a little hard to get You'd think by now I'd had enough
But I'm never gonna give it up

Did you ever wanna touch somebody so much
You could almost feel it
Did you ever wanna kiss somebody
So much you thought about stealin' it
Did you ever wanna say something to somebody so
much
You're just about to say it
She's my life she spins my world
You know I love that girl so much
So much so much
So much so much
So much so much
So much
