I like livin in the land of free
And I like how it feels when you lean on me
Ever since you wandered into my back yard
I dropped my resistance and lowered my guard

You got the pieces of my heart all in a row
Knock one down and thw whole thing goes
It's the domino theory of love
It only takes a shove

I fall you fall
We gotta keep our defenses up
That's the domino theory of love
The game of romance is a balancing act
It's two step forward and one step back

Take a little liberty give a little ground
Next thing you know we'll be sliding on down
When it comes to sortin out our hearts and our minds
We're just a couple of pushovers standing in line

It's the domino theory of love
It only takes a shove
I fall you fall
We gotta keep our defenses up

That's the domino theory of love

SOLO

When it comes to sortin out our hearts and our minds
We're just a couple of pushovers standing in line
It's the domino theory of love
It only takes a shove

I fall you fall
We gotta keep our defenses up
Or we'll all go down together
It only takes a shove

I fall you fall

We gotta keep our defenses up
