Consider it joy when the trials of life are upon you Remember: a promise is given to all who endure Bringing wisdom, filling completely

With a faith that is real, a faith that is true
The source of strength to carry me through When what I believe is not what I feel, I hold on With a faith that is real

Tossed by the wind and the waves, I have been double-minded Faithless and doubting, til you taught me how to believe
You are my anchor! Lord, I can trust You!

Oh Lord, I know it's by Your grace alone that you saved me!
And the good that I do is only because You gave me!

Oh Lord, give me faith!
