A sea of green, a sky of blue
Is there time? All things to do
I see your face before me and I'm wondering if it's you
Looking through the window but there isn't any view
So I'm taking from the chandelier
A crystal just for you

The music plays
The pheasant stays
A plane in the sky
Reality passing by

I see your face before me and I'm wondering if it's you
Looking through the window but there isn't any view
So I'm taking from the chandelier
A crystal just for you.
