What makes one man a criminal, another a celebrity?
What puts one man on a park bench and another behind a big desk?
What is the difference between failure and success?

Will, will powers
There's will to show you the way
Will, will powers
There's will to show you the way

Let's get it straight just for the record
Let's get it straight
If you want the rewards of life
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you and no one else

No one gets through life without fighting some battles
The person who runs away from his problems is defeated by them
The person who faces his problems conquers them
What do you need to win your battles?

Will will powers,
There's will to show you the way
Will, will powers,
There's will to show you the way

Let's get it straight just for the record
Let's get it straight
If you want the rewards of life
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you and no one else

Why stumble home at night like the loser of a fight
When living with will power's set the whole day right?
Now is the time, seize the hour
Wake up with will, feel his power will

Let's get it straight just for the record let's get it straight

If You want the rewards of life
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you decide your fate
Remember, only you and no one else
