Where your love is put your heart
Guard these moments well,
Where your dreams are put your hopes
You know they will not fail you.
When the sun rises in the morning
You will wake up and find her yawning
When the wind blows strong and cold
She'll be with you until you grow old.

Where your love is put your heart,
Oh what would you do, if your dreams came true?

I would build a lovely house
With sating green shutters
It would be lovely
The most lovely house in the world

And I would sing a lovely song
With you in my mind
And you in my eyes
The most lovely song in the world
I would write it down on the walls
Just for you, just for you
And I would hold you in my arms
For the rest of my days.

When your sad and feeling low
On your own with nowhere to go,
Make believe that she is gone
Play your guitar and write a song for her.

Write down the words about how you cried
When you woke up weeping cause you thought she had died,
Then you heard her breathing through your pain
And you held her close and cried all over again.

Where your love is put your heart
Oh what would you do if your dreams came true>

And inside my lovely house

With satin green shutters
There would be children
The most lovely children in the world.

And even when the skies are grey
We would be happy
For we'd have love
The most lovely love in the world
I would write it down on the wind
Just for you, just for you
And I would hold you in my arms,
For the rest of my days.
