Now just the other day, I overheard a flower talking to the sky
He said, you know that I would be nothing without you, oh, oh
He said, you give me rain, you give the sun a place to shine
You're everything that my whole existence comes down to, oh, oh
And then the flower started singing a song
Before I knew it, I was singing along
And we sang

This is my declaration of dependence
This is my declaration of my need
This is my declaration of dependence
On the One who gave His life to me

Now, let me say that I'm the kind of guy who wants to do it all myself
Don't want to ask for help, don't like to stop for directions, oh, oh
But in reality, I'm nothing on my own It's by God's grace alone that I can make this confession
All that I am and all I'm hoping to be
Is all and only what He's given to me
So I say

This is my declaration of dependence
This is my declaration of my need
This is my declaration of dependence
On the one who gave His life to me

And I know this is how my life was meant to be
I was made for this dependency
On the One who has created me
So I'll sing my declaration song
For the One I am depending on
And I hope you'll sing along

This is my declaration of dependence

This is my declaration of my need
This is my declaration of dependence
On the one who gave His life to me
Yeah, e-Yeah, Yeah

(This is my declaration) Oh whoa yeah

This is my declaration of dependence
This is my declaration of my need
This is my declaration of dependence
On the One who gave His life to me
