The TV said, ?Just make sure you're old enough
And let your feelings tell you when it's right?
What went wrong? She thought it was really love
Now she wonders why she just can't sleep at night

She knew the rules but they were too old fashioned
Was it worth the price she has to pay?

It's either truth or consequences, there's no other way
Push truth aside, the other takes its place
Well, you can close your eyes but that won't make it go away
The truth or consequences must be faced

The headlines say our world's in a lot of pain
Hurt from all the selfishness and greed
What went wrong? Like sheep, all have gone astray
We'll reap what we sow, don't be deceived

His truth's been given and it's there before us
Written on the page and in our hearts

It's either truth or consequences, there's no other way
Push truth aside, the other takes its place
Well, you can close your eyes but that won't make it go
The truth or consequences must be faced
Oh, they must be faced

As sure as God made the sun to shine
He made the rules we must all live by
He loved us too much to leave us alone
To our own devices

It's either truth or consequences, there's no other way
Push truth aside, the other takes its place
Well, you can close your eyes but that won't make it go
The truth or consequences must be faced

And there's no other way
Push truth aside, the other takes its place

Well, you can close your eyes but that won't make it go
The truth or consequences must be faced
Oh, it must be faced

It's either truth or consequences, there's no other way
Well, you can close your eyes and run and hide
But that won't make it go away

It's either truth or consequences
There's no other way
You can close your eyes
That won't make it go away
