Hush little girl, sweet baby dont cry. . .tonight Daddy's is here and will sing you a soft lullabye. . . tonight
why cant it all be like it was before How can i explain my mommy's not here anymore Cause daddy likes porno and 10 $ whores daddy gets wasted and robs liquor stores daddy likes rubbing against little boys on the bus i think thats why mommy left us, mommy left us Hush little girl, there is no reason to fret tonight Dont mind the smoke, daddy's just trying to forget (inhale)
soon it will all be like it was before Any minute she will walk throught that front door but daddy plays poker and drinks lots of beer then he wants sex that involves mommy's rear Daddy has sores on his naughty parts, oozing with pus i think thats why your mommy left us please dont cry, i swear i'll try, to be here by your side right after daddy gets home from the bar visists his bookie and steals a new car he'll drive to the strip club, and if daddy plays his cards right. . .
he'll bring home your new mommy tonight, lalalalalalalalaa
