When the faces turn away
When the clocks ticking slower
I don't know what to do
So I just fall in love
I just walk along the road that you let me to

Then I'm thinking about another way
Then I'm facing a lie
Well I'm feeling we could have tried
Then I'm running in a running
But I won't fit in any place
Then I'm diving and diving
But I can't find a trace

Let me stay the night
Let me teach you to cry
You can teach my to love
Nobody warned me about being alone
About being upset or being glad
But when the rain comes down
I don't know whether I should hide or go

Then I'm thinking about another way
Then I'm facing a lie
Well I'm feeling we should have tried
Then I'm running in a running
But I won't fit in any place
Then I'm diving and diving
Baby all I needed was 10 minutes of sleep

If all my dreams came true
If all my friends changed for good.
What would I do
