look at this mess around here I ain't exactly proud i'm not exaggerating by crying out loud but we could use some change so fix your wrecks grab your hat full of ideas this world is not a game so we're not aloud to lose

chorus
so we should try to turn the tide cause we ought to it's hard to face the fight but we have to
for we can't bloom without it not even for a while it's getting complicated and you were foolin' yourself just look into the eyes of a man that's walking down that road again well you know what's at stake so don't deny

to make you understand it's not just us and them ow yeah
we run into this light and it's cuts us like a knife all the time

to fall apart
it's twice as hard

2x chorus
