Did you take them
The things I
Left when you weren't there
Are you pleased with
All your fortune
Well I think it's time to crawl back into your cage
But baby
Watch your step
I didn't mean to catch
All the butterflies you wanted to have
I gave them back and what else can I do
Than feel o so sorry for you

Started all over again
I still have my doubts about it but
We can reach that far baby
You just kinda screw it up
You've got places to heel cause
All that remains is one big lie
I know cause it hurts inside
So you better
Get away
Get away

Like I told you
Stay out of my sight cause you
Only bring trouble with you
Now you know me
You can tell all your friends just
What you think about me
But baby
Watch your breath
I didn't mean to say
All the words you wanted to tell her
I gave them back and what else can I do
Than feel o so sorry for you

Started all over again
I still have my doubts about it but
We can reach that far baby
You just kinda screw it up
You've got places to heel cause

All that remains is one big lie
I know
I know

All that remains is one big lie
I still have my doubts about it but
We can reach that far baby
You just kinda screw it up
You've got places to heel cause
So you better
Get away
Get away...
