I see myself in a way some girls do
no one notices but you, so let say you're the one to help me out of here.
Let's take all our plans and leave them in the past.
I'm a raging hurricane and will see,
if they'll survive, out ther
hey-yeaah, hey-yeaah, hey-yeaah__

REFREIN:

But baby, I forgot, forgot to ask you,
yeah, where you're going tonight.
And baby, it will hurt me.
But I'll be long here so I'm leaving
next time with you by my side.

VERSE 2:

People look up when I mention your name.
No it won't be the same but I need a change
right now so please turn the other way.
I'm tired of the thought that everybody's walking the
same road,
and everybody is singing the same note,
so I sing something totally unprepared__
hey-yeaah, hey-yeaah, hey-yeaah__

REFREIN:

But baby, I forgot, forgot to ask you,
yeah, where you're going tonight.
And baby, it will hurt me.
But I'll be long here so I'm leaving
next time with you by my side.
