I could scream into a microphone
And i'm feeling so alone
Yeah you still wouldn't hear me
I could need you more then ever now
Any let's be how
Really how nobody

It's not the waiting that causes the pain
It's just never felt such a long way

For what it's that goes on
Between that first part and what we're wrong
When i said that i lost it
I miss all that is crossing
And the way that we used to dream

I could be swept of my feet
Next to me there is an empty seat
Now tell me, what does it mean

I could ride those for milion miles
And cry when i see the silver down
Where would you be to capture me

It's not the waiting that causes the pain
It's just never felt such a long way

For what it's that goes on
Between that first part and what we're wrong
When i said that i lost it
I miss all that is crossing
And the way that we used to dream

We can't be faded
We can't be torn apart
I will be waiting
I would do anything to make this work i'll
If only be you

For what it's that goes on
When i said that i lost it

I miss all that is crossing
And the way that we used to dream
The way that we used to be
